

I pay a monthly fee to use my satellite radio and would very much appreciate not being told what I can and cannot listen to. That is censorship at its finest and should be stopped before it gets started. If there is something on satellite radio that I CHOOSE not to listen to, then as a paying customer it should remain MY choice.